

HEALTH & SAFETY TEAM OF THE YEAR – SPONSORED BY NEBOSH

This category is designed to recognise health and safety teams that are making a significant difference in their workplace. The submission should demonstrate how the activities and initiatives implemented by the team since 1 January 2017 have helped to improve the health, safety or wellbeing standards and performance within either their own or a client organisation. Any accomplishments achieved prior to this date will not be eligible for entry.

Key tips for your entry

1. Keep information simple

Please keep your sentences short and easy to understand. Please don't assume that our judges will be familiar with acronyms or technical terminology are used in your business. Submit your text in language that is clear and precise highlighting the merits of the submission.

2. Provide detail about the performance of the team

The judges need to know details on how the team have made a positive impact within an organisation or partner organisation. Please provide supporting evidence which shows the direct contribution the team has made to the improvements to either the health, safety or wellbeing of persons or premises.

3. Adhere to time period

The submission should only include what the team has achieved since 1 January 2017. Any accomplishments achieved prior to this date will not be eligible for entry.

4. You do not have to be an exhibitor of the Fire Safety Event, Health and Safety Event or any other exhibition organised by Western Business Exhibitions to be eligible to enter the awards. No person working for Western Business Exhibitions, BSIF and NEBOSH are eligible for entry.

5. Legal proceedings

If the individual or your company has been subject to any prosecution in relation to fire safety law or health and safety law since 1 January 2017, or has been subject to any enforcement notices, your entry will be automatically disqualified.
